VILLA PARK WOMEN'S LEAGUE STANDING RULES

1. Standing rules shall be approved by two-thirds vote of the Advisory Board and a majority of the members present at a General meeting, following notification in the Villa Voice.
2. One must be a member in good standing to participate in activities. A member in good standing is one who has paid membership dues and is not delinquent in the purchase of one ticket for the prior year's Ways and Means project.*
3. All members, except auxiliary and associate members, are expected to support wholeheartedly the Ways and Means project of the year and are responsible for purchasing at least one ticket.*
4. Councilwomen, the wives of the Councilmen, Planning Commissioners, and wives of Planning Commissioners will be excluded from holding offices of President and First Vice-President.
5. Board members may be asked to resign from the Board if they miss more than three meetings without justification. They are also expected to support League activities and General Meetings.
6. Any member making a reservation is financially responsible for it unless cancellation is made prior to the reservation deadline.
7. The membership roster is published for the exclusive use of the League and IS NOT to be used for solicitation or advertising.*
8. The League may take a stand on civic issues after Consideration by the Advisory Board and notice given in the Villa Voice.
- 9a. The League shall not participate in any political Campaign on behalf of any individual candidate for public office.
- 9b. Neither League members nor their guests shall promote any political position(s) or agenda(s) by the circulation of written materials, such as (but not limited to) petitions, flyers, or campaign literature at a League meeting, activity or event.*
10. The Villa Voice shall be used ONLY for articles relating to activities, special events and community or civic information as approved by the Advisory Board.
11. All activities shall be conducted as interest groups. If a group wishes to receive instruction for a fee, such decision will be made by the members of the group, not the League. The Activity Chairman shall provide any interested group with a list of several possible instructors and the fees, on request.
12. If a member or business wishes to offer a service or product to the League, they may do so under competitive bidding procedures. Acknowledgment of underwriters for any League activity requires Advisory Board approval.
13. If more than one League member advises the Executive and/or the Advisory Board of a violation of any of the above Standing Rules denoted by an asterisk(*), the Executive and/or the Advisory Board(s) may investigate said violation, and take appropriate action(s).
